EWING KAUFFMAN
OWNER
Chairman of the Board

There was much about Ewing Marion Kauffman in his early years to indicate he might one day own a major league sports franchise, possessing as he does a sense of daring and a tireless capacity for marshalling his own energies. Since both are ingredients critical to success in business and entertainment (which is what baseball has become in America), there are few among his intimates who did not cheer his purchase of the Kansas City Royals in 1968, the city's first "home-owned" major league franchise.

Their optimism proved valid. The club's even-handed philosophy and pervasive team spirit bear the Kauffman stamp. It is not so much the "white hat" syndrome but the conviction of a man who believes you get out of life what you put into it. Woven into his thinking, one must feel, is a deep and abiding belief in the essential value of the person, his dignity and his rights.

Under his guidance the Royals have developed into 1 of the most successful major league franchises.

It wasn't until 1980 that Mr. K. realized his 1st dream—a World Series in Kansas City as he promised the fans.

Mr. K., as he is known to associates, devotes a good part of his time to Marion Laboratories, Inc., the Kansas City-based pharmaceutical firm which he founded a quarter of a century ago. Today he guides the company in a daily advisory role as chairman of the board and chief executive officer. It was while building Marion to a $200 million annual volume that he attracted national recognition for his ability to motivate those around him, a philosophy based upon the concept of sharing with Marion people the profits which they help generate.

As to the Royals, Kauffman leaves day-to-day decisions to his executives. He is kept advised of developments and devotes much time to specific American League and major league projects.

He sponsored formation of the Royal Lancers, a group of business men and women who have consistently kept Kansas City ahead of league leaders in season ticket sales. He has addressed numerous organizations on the value of starting and coordinating similar organizations.

Kauffman's life began on a farm near Garden City, Mo., sixty miles southeast of Kansas City. The family moved to Kansas City when he was a youngster. He attended high school and junior college locally, then spent four years in the Navy.

After a brief stint as a salesman for a pharmaceutical firm, he began in 1950 what was to become Marion Laboratories in the basement of the modest family home in Kansas City. The enterprise grew rapidly as a result of the intense personal efforts of its young owner, combining his unusual sales skills with his talent for motivating others.

Kauffman's business and sports leadership have brought numerous honors to the Royals. The Kansas City Press Club voted him Man-of-the-Year in 1973. He was the "Mr. Baseball" honoree at the 1976 Kansas City Baseball Awards Dinner, and later that year was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall-of-Fame.

JOE BURKE
President

Joe Burke was named President October 8, 1981, following a highly successful 9-year tenure as Executive-Vice President and General Manager.

Under Burke's guidance and leadership, baseball has achieved the greatest success it has known in its 28-year history in Kansas City. The Royals have won an American League Pennant, brought the 1st World Series to Kansas City and been A.L. Western Division Champions 4 times. With Burke in control attendance has climbed from 1,173,292 in 1974 to an incredible 2,288,845 in 1980, including 4 seasons over the 2 million mark.

It's no surprise that the 59-year old executive has molded the Royals into 1 of the most smoothly run and financially sound operations in baseball as he relies on 35 years of baseball experience.

Throughout his 22 seasons of administrative work in the major leagues he has been an active member in the continued development and structure of Major League Baseball. As the Chairman of the Committee on Divisional Play he was influential in the current structure of the 4 divisions and the beginning of the League Championship Series. He was also a member of the Committee on Expansion and has served on the Schedule Committee, Division of Receipts Committee and the Player Relations Committee.

In recognition of his efforts and leadership in bringing Kansas City its 1st division championship in 21 seasons, Burke was named 1976 Major League Executive-of-the-Year by The Sporting News. He was selected to the prestigious honor by a vote of the other major league executive officers. Following the Royals' 2nd straight division quest in 1977, Burke received the "Mr. Baseball" Award at the Seventh Annual Kansas City Baseball Award Dinner in January, 1978. The award is presented annually for outstanding service to professional baseball in Kansas City.

Burke served as Executive Vice President and General Manager from June 11, 1974 until his appointment as President. He served as Vice President-Business after joining the Kansas City front office on Sept. 3, 1973. He was Vice President and General Manager of the Washington-Texas organization for 5 years prior to joining the Royals. Burke 1st joined the Senators as Assistant General Manager in 1961. He became Business Manager and Treasurer in 1963 and was named Vice President and Treasurer in 1968.

His 1st 12 years in baseball (December, 1948-60) were with the Louisville Colonels in his hometown. He was selected Man-of-the-Year by the Louisville baseball writers in 1960 when the Colonels, then affiliated with the Milwaukee Braves, won the Junior World Series. Burke was General Manager at the time, having taken over the duties in 1956. He started with Louisville as Ticket Manager and was Business Manager for 6 seasons from 1950-55.

Burke and his wife, Mary, make their home in suburban Kansas City. They have 7 children: Joe, Mary Ann, Jimmy, John, Alice, Bobby and Vincent.

JOHN SCHUERHOLZ

Executive Vice President and General Manager

John Schuerholz inherited the demanding and complex responsibility as Executive Vice President and General Manager from Joe Burke on October 8, 1981. The 42-year old executive has the day-to-day responsibility for the operation of the Royals.

"I have worked closely with John during the past 9 years and I have complete confidence in his abilities," Burke said. "He is 1 of the bright young executives in our game and is well prepared for this challenge."

Schuerholz is highly qualified to head the Royals' operation as he relies on 17 years experience. He is the only person who has been involved with every player that has come through the Kansas City farm system. He was part of the Royals' staff back in 1968 when Kansas City formed its original roster in the expansion draft, and he has played a key role in the organization's continued development of talent.

He originally joined the Royals' organization in August of 1968 as an Administrative Assistant, followed by a series of promotions leading to his present position. In 1970 he became Assistant Farm Director. He was appointed Farm Director in September of 1975 and served as Director of Scouting and Player Procurement and Development from 1976-79. The Baltimore, Md. native was named Vice President—Player Personnel January 25, 1979. During his career with the Royals he has been responsible for administering the operation of the Royals' minor league system, supervising and assigning scouts, hiring managers and coaches and negotiating player contracts. During the past two years as Vice President—Player Personnel, he has worked closely with Burke on major league matters including trades and contract negotiations.

Prior to joining the Royals, Schuerholz received his first exposure to major league baseball with the Baltimore Orioles, serving as an assistant to the minor league and scouting departments for 2 years.

He is a graduate of Towson (Md.) State University, where he was an all-conference choice in baseball and soccer and was Athlete-of-the-Year in 1962. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1973.

Schuerholz and his wife Karen, daughter Gina, and son Jonathan, reside in suburban Kansas City.

With the Reds his experience included serving as secretary to the minor league clubs, administrative assistant to the minor league clubs and scouting and assistant farm director. DESIGNATED HITTER RULE

A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher. The designated hitter must be selected and be included on the lineup cards presented to the umpire-in-chief prior to the game. Failure to do so precludes the use of a designated hitter for that game.

The designated hitter is "locked" into the batting order but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or pinch-runner, who in turn becomes the designated hitter. The designated hitter, while still in the game may be used defensively but the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player, thus terminating the designated hitter role.

The designated hitter is eligible for all American League batting titles.

SCORING RULE—PINCH HITTERS

A player shall be considered a pinch hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. (If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up.)

A substitute hitter for a designated hitter is both a pinch hitter and a designated hitter on his first time at bat. On subsequent trips to the plate he is a designated hitter only.

Charlie Moore's pinch hit single with 2 out in the 8th inning spoiled his no-hit bid in the 3-0 win . . . he walked 3 and fanned a season high 9 batters in the contest . . . 1976—Although slowed the last two months of the season by a finger injury, Paul had another fine season . . . all but 3 of his appearances and 1 of his starts came prior to August . . . he overcame a slow start and 3-6 record to reel off 8 consecutive winning decisions from June 6—July 22 . . . on July 27 at California, after 5 innings in that game, Splitt was forced to leave the contest with a swollen index finger on his left hand . . . he was placed on the disabled list the following day and treatment for the tendonitis injury shelved him until Sept. 10 . . . the return paid big dividends to the Royals in the ALCS as the as the veteran southpaw posted a victory in 2 relief appearances limiting the Yankees to only 2 runs and 7 hits in 9.1 innings . . . 1975—Paul overcame a slow start to finish the season as 1 of the team's most effective hurlers . . . keying the resurgence was a sterling mid-season stint in the bullpen—his 1st as a pro—in which he posted a 2.22 ERA and recorded a victory and save in 24 innings . . . once back in the starting rotation he kept his touch by twice putting together long strings of near-perfect work . . . 1st stretch was a 25 inning period without an earned run that began Aug. 3 and spanned 4 starting appearances . . . setting the feat in motion was a brilliant 1-hitter over the Oakland A's . . . Splitt allowed a 1-out walk to Phil Garner and an infield hit to Claudell Washington and then retired 26 straight to end the game with a 5-0 triumph . . . the 26 consecutive batters retired in a game established a club record . . . the 2nd string ran 24 innings without a run from Aug. 21—Sept. 9 . . . included were back-to-back 7-0 shutouts vs. New York and Chicago . . . Miscellaneous—the highlight of Paul's career was the 1973 season when he became Kansas City's 1st 20-game winner . . . his 20-11 record with a .645 winning percentage was 4th best in the league . . . he also set KC records for innings and starts . . . a muscle pull in his back kept him out for 2 weeks in July and probably cost him a berth in the All-Star Game . . . Paul's career strikeout high is 10 . . . he accomplished the mark 1st on Sept. 5, 1972 vs. Texas and last repeated it on Sept. 16, 1973 . . . his 1972 victory total tied for tops on the Royals' staff . . . he won 9 of 1st 13 that year . . . Splitt was the 1st player originally signed by the Royals to make it onto the major league roster (Oct. 24, 1969) and was the 2nd to appear in a game . . . Jim York beat him by 2 days . . . Paul's 1st appearance was Sept. 23, 1970 . . . while pitching for Omaha in 1969 he was selected for the American Association All-Star Game . . . he helped Omaha to league titles in both '69 and 1970 . . . was named to All-New York-Penn League team in '68 . . . he was basketball-baseball star at Morningside and Arlington Heights (Ill.) High School . . . Paul pitched for the United States team in the Pan-American Games in 1967 when it won the championship at Winnipeg, Canada.

ROSTER LIMITATIONS

Rosters are limited to 25 players from opening day through August 31 and 40 players from September 1 through conclusion of season. Players in military service do not count against the under control list while on active duty. Upon separation from the service, a player will be reinstated to his club's normal player limits after he has completed a 15-day trial period or has participated in a championship game, whichever comes first.

Tony Solaita hit 3 homers at California on Sept. 7, 1975(11 innings) and George Brett became the last to do it at Texas, July 22, 1979. No player has ever hit 3 homers in a game at Royals Stadium.

ROYALS WORLD SERIES REVIEW

1980 WS—VS. PHILADELPHIA PHILLIES

The 1st World Series in Kansas City history matched the Royals against the Philadelphia Phillies, who put on a storybook surge to capture their 1st National League pennant since 1950. The Phillies claimed the World Championship in 6 games, using wins in the opening 2 contests at Philadelphia to jump to a commanding advantage. The Royals then edged the Phillies 2 straight at Kansas City to even the matchup after 4 games, but the National League club rallied for a pair of runs in the final frame of Game #5 at Royals Stadium to record a 4-3 triumph that ended the Royals' hopes. The showdown returned to Veterans Stadium for Game #6 and the Phils secured the title in front of the home fans with a 4-1 verdict in the final game. SCOUTING and PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Dick Balderson serves as Director of Scouting and Player Development for the Kansas City Royals and has the complex task of supervising the Royals' minor league operations.

Balderson, a 37-year old native of Portsmouth, Va. has been with the Royals since April of 1976 when he joined the club as Assistant Farm Director. He became Director of Minor League Operations in 1980 and was promoted to his present post October 14, 1981. His responsibilities for the minor league operations include coordinating the assignments for the club's 30-man scouting staff as they search for talent at the amateur and professional level. The farm system includes 6 teams from the Rookie level through the triple A level with approximately 150 players as he oversees the instruction and development of the club's vital lifeline of talent.

Balderson spent 7½ years in the Royals' minor league system as a righthanded pitcher, working primarily in relief. He is a graduate of Richmond University where he received his Bachelor of Science Degree in History. He and his wife, Marcia, and son, Brett, live in Kansas City.

The Royals' farm system and scouting department are under the guidance of Dick Balderson, Director of Scouting and Player Development. Assisting in the day-to-day administration of the organization's 6 minor league affiliates is Dean Taylor, Assistant Director of Scouting and Player Development.

The Royals, since the organization's inception in 1969, have operated 1 of baseball's most aggressive farm systems and will continue in that pattern in 1983. For the 4th consecutive year, Kansas City's minor league system will include a triple-A club, a double-A club, 2 A clubs and a pair of rookie affiliates.

Kansas City takes pride in the significant role that its farm system has played in the development of the major league franchise. Over the years the farm system has been especially productive in providing players for the major league team. The 1983 Royals continue that strong tradition. Of the 41 players listed on the Royals' 1983 winter roster, 24 were originally signed and developed by the Royals. Included are a number of players who have played on a regular basis—catcher John Wathan; infielders Frank White, U.L. Washington and George Brett; outfielder Willie Wilson, and pitchers Dennis Leonard, Paul Splittorff and Dan Quisenberry. Additionally, 5 new products of the Royals' farm system appear on the major league roster for the initial time in 1983.

Several players in the Farm System enjoyed impressive campaigns in 1982. At Omaha (AAA), reliever Bob Tufts notched a 10-6 mark with a 1.60 ERA with 12 saves. He was named to the American Association All-Star team, and the Topps AAA All-Star team. Outfielder Mark Ryal hit .285 with a team leading 27 doubles in helping Omaha to the division title. At Jacksonville (AA), the pitching staff put together a sparkling season to lead the Suns to an 83-61 mark. Two of the pitchers in the Suns' rotation were Theo Shaw and Vinnie Yuhas. Shaw was 7-5 with a 2.80 ERA in 20 games and allowed only 83 hits in 128.2 innings. Yuhas was 7-5 with a brilliant 2.14 ERA in 14 starting assignments. He used the impressive campaign to earn a promotion to Omaha where he was 4-2 in 13 games. Also enjoying a steady campaign for the Suns was catcher Russ Stephans. Russ was named to the Southern League All-Star team and played in the mid-season contest.

Of the non-roster players in the 1983 spring camp, several recorded solid seasons last year. Pitcher David Cone played A ball with stops in Charleston and Fort Myers. His combined record was 16-3 in 26 games. Another strong hurler was lefthander Danny Jackson. He opened the year at Charleston and went 10-1 with a 2.62 ERA to earn a promotion to double-A at Jacksonville. There he notched a 7-2 mark with a 2.39 ERA. Catcher Roger Hansen spent the entire season at Charleston where he hit a solid .293 with 15 home runs and 94 RBI while earning South Atlantic League All-Star team honors.

In addition to belonging to the Major League Scouting Bureau, the Royals' player development phase in enhanced by 15 full-time scouts and a contingent of 15 part-time scouts.

NO-HITTERS

Steve Busby and Jim Colborn are the only pitchers in Kansas City's modern major league history to have hurled no-hitters.

Busby accomplished the feat on 2 occasions, the first coming in Tiger Stadium when he held Detroit hitless on April 27, 1973. Busby gave up 6 walks and struck out 4 as Kansas City won 3-0. His 2nd gem also came on the road on June 19, 1974 at Milwaukee's County Stadium where he blanked the Brewers, 2-0. It was in near perfect fashion as the only baserunner was George Scott, who walked to lead off the 2nd inning.

Colborn recorded the 1st no-hitter by a Kansas City pitcher at Royals Stadium on May 14, 1977, when he blanked the Texas Rangers, 6-0. It too was nearly a perfect outing as Colborn walked one batter and hit another while facing only 28 hitters.

Busby and relief pitcher Doug Bird teamed up for a no-hitter against Detroit April 23, 1973 during the exhibition season. Busby pitched the 1st 6 innings and allowed only 2 baserunners—1 reached by a walk and the other on an error. Bird pitched the final 3 innings and allowed only 2 walks as KC won 4-1.

After dusting off the record books, it has been discovered that back in 1888 Henry Poter hurled a no-hit game for Kansas City's American Association major league club. It was a 4-0 win in Baltimore as the righthander walked 2 batters.

Until Busby and Bird teamed up for their gem, the last professional no-hitter by a Kansas City hurler had been Ernie Nevel's 7-inning gem in the Triple-A American Association in 1951.

Kansas City had 5 minor league 9-inning no-hitters while it was in the American Association, the last 1 Carl De Roses' perfect game in 1947.

California Angels' ace Nolan Ryan recorded the 1st no-hitter in Royals Stadium on May 15, 1973. He struck out 12 and allowed only 3 base runners—all on walks.

The only other no-hitter thrown against Kansas City came when Jack Kralick of the Minnesota Twins no-hit the Athletics at Bloomington on Aug. 26, 1962, for a 1-0 victory. He came within 2 outs of pitching a perfect game. With 1 out in the 9th inning, he walked pinch hitter George Alusik on a 3-2 pitch.

Carl DeRose of the Blues of the American Association hurled the only professional no-hitter in Municipal Stadium when he blanked Minneapolis 5-0, on June 26, 1947. He faced only 27 batters, making it the first perfect game in American Association history.

ROYALS STADIUM

Recognized throughout baseball as one of the game's most beautiful ballparks, Royals Stadium opens its doors for the 11th season.

Over 17 million people have visited Royals Stadium since it opened in 1973, with attendance topping the 2 million mark in four of the last five campaigns.

The stadium opened April 10, 1973 with the Royals defeating Texas 12-1 before 39,464 fans. Since then, many exciting games have been contested here, including the 1973 All-Star game, two no-hitters, playoff games in 1976, 77, 78, 80 and 81 and three World Series contests in 1980.

Royals Stadium features a Tartan Turf which covers both the infield and outfield, a 12-story high scoreboard and 322-foot wide water spectacular. The scoreboard contains 16,320 light bulbs, most of them on the 40-foot wide, 60 foot high screen. The water spectacular runs from centerfield to the rightfield corner and is the largest privately funded fountain in the world.

Four circular ramps and 4 escalators make all sections easy to reach. 20,316 of the 40,625 seats are on the lower level with 2,487 on the club level (even with the press facilities) and 17,822 on the upper level.

Media representatives work in the air conditioned comfort of a 2-level press box. The upper level includes 7 broadcasting booths with the lower section containing working space for the print media. There are also field and press level photographer and television camera positions.
